

Media release

18 April 2019

Expert Advisory Committee announced for Royal Commission into Victoria's Mental Health System

Mind congratulates its former Chief Executive Gerry Naughtin, the former Mind Board Chair Julian Gardner AM and former Team Leader for Consumer and Carer Participation, Erandathie Jayakody, on their appointments to the Expert Advisory Committee for the Royal Commission into Victoria's Mental Health System.

Announced today, the Expert Advisory Committee will provide expert advice to the Commission on any advice necessary to inform its inquiry. Chaired by Professor Patrick McGorry AO, the Committee also includes Professor James Ogloff AM, Ms Anne Doherty, Ms Honor Eastly and Mr Jim Williamson.

We know Gerry Naughtin, Julian Gardner AO and Erandathie Jayakody will bring an extraordinary breadth of professional and sector knowledge and lived experience insight to the Committee, and through it to the Royal Commission itself.

For more information about the Committee and the Royal Commission into Victorian mental Health Services, visit <https://rcvmhs.vic.gov.au/about-commission>